START WORK TO RID ISLANDS OF
PESTS TO CROPS

Associated Press

HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 20.—Efforts to rid the Hawaiian Islands of the mungos, a carnivorous animal which is regarded as the worst pest to island crops, have been begun by the territorial fish and game commission, in co-operation with the board of supervisors of Honolulu.

The bounty on mungos' scalps has been raised from 15 to 25 cents by the supervisors, who appropriated $399 for that purpose and annual bounties ranging from $5 to $25 have been given the three persons killing the largest numbers of the banded animal.

AMERICA GOING

Peru, where the colony is to be established.

The party is in charge of J. B. Schenck, of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, formerly United States Indian agent for Oklahoma territory, who obtained a grant of 10,000 acres of agricultural and grazing lands from the Peruvian government last October.

After the preliminary location of the lands in the concession is completed, it is planned to bring the remaining colonists, numbering about 500, to the settlement via Para, Brazil, and the Amazon and Ucayali rivers. The former is navigable from its mouth on the Atlantic ocean to Iquitos, Peru, about 200 miles.

In an interview published in the West Coast Leader, Mr. Schenck said that, owing to drought and crop failure, a number of farmers in the central west had expressed their desire to seek more fertile and profitable fields.

FULFILL VOW BY CRAWLING TWO MILES ON KNEES

Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—A curious sight was witnessed in the streets of Los Angeles today when a woman, Mrs. Mary Ann, wife of a workman, was seen crawling on her knees through the streets to the church of Our Lady of Health, thus carrying out a vow made during the illness of her husband in case of his recovery.

The distance from her home to the church was over two miles and long before she had accomplished one-half of her pilgrimage, her knees were torn by the stones and her face was stained with blood.

Mrs. Ann's husband, a young man, fell seriously ill about six months ago and was given up by the doctors. His devoted wife tended him with untiring care and love and when it was thought that he was dying, she vowed for a miracle that should save his life, making a vow that if he recovered she would go on her knees to the shrine of Our Lady of Health.

The husband recovered and the wife has fulfilled her vow.
